MEDIA ADVISORY

IRC to Meet Thursday, Friday at Wild Horse Pass

Agendas include Competitiveness, Transparency, Minority Interests

PHOENIX (Sept. 21, 2011) – Arizona’s Independent Redistricting Commission will meet Thursday and Friday, Sept. 22 and Sept. 23, at the Wild Horse Pass Hotel & Casino in the Gila River Indian Community south of Chandler.

The commission will convene at 9 a.m. Thursday in the Ocotillo Conference Room, with an agenda that includes examination and discussion of “competitiveness,” as well as discussion and possible action on a Transparency Policy that would apply to commissioners and staff.

On Friday, the commission will meet at 9 a.m. in the Acacia C-D Conference Room, where the Arizona Minority Coalition for Fair Redistricting is scheduled to make a presentation.

Completed agendas are available at azredistricting.org/Meeting-Info/default.asp. Because some agenda items may involve legal advice, the panel could go into executive session, from which the public would be excluded.
